

Bio: Bonnie T. Poulos

Employed as an Assistant Staff Scientist at the University of Arizona since 1992. Areas of expertise are microbiology, molecular biology, shrimp pathology.

Community work in Tucson spans 25 years and includes participation in several committees dealing with land use and transportation planning, storm water management and citizen participation.

Pima County Planning and Zoning Commission; 2002 to present

Neighborhood Infill Coalition; 2002 to present

Campus Farm Neighborhood Association; 1983 to present

Aravaipa Canyon Ecosystem Management Plan Citizen Advisory Committee, 2006

Cost of Growth Task Force for COT General Plan; Sept. 2000 to January 2001

City of Tucson (COT) Planning Commission; 1998-2001

Tucson Regional Transportation Coalition; 1993-1995

Pima County Comprehensive Plan Citizen Advisory Committee for the Southeast-Rincon area; 1991-1992

COT Storm Water Management Study Citizen Advisory Committee; 1988-1994

COT Citizen Transportation Advisory Committee; 1986-1992

North side Area Plan Citizen Advisory Committee; 1986-1987

Pima County Deputy Registrar; 1984-1992