

Sent: Wednesday, February 03, 2010 4:32 PM

To: info@tucsonpimawaterstudy.com

Subject: E-mail from TucsonPimaWaterStudy.com - Comments

Email Address: sltofel@tofelconstruction.com

Comments/Questions: I strongly suggest re-addressing the issue of the Conservation Effluent Pool. although this was committed back in 2000, I believe that the urgent nature of the state of the Tucson Metropolitan area economy suggests that this is not the highest and best use for this valuable resource. The more our effluent can be used in landscape, industrial or agricultural applications in lieu of potable water, the better our community will be able to face the very serious challenges before us.